

DAILY PRAYER

Father God, i come to You and ask that You would unleash Your divinely powerful weapons to demolish the Satanic strongholds in my life; strongholds of lust, pornography, deception and masturbation.

Crush, annihilate and completely remove any remnant of those strongholds and build in their places strongholds of righteousness, purity and truth.

Father, transform me by the renewing of my mind and set my heart free.

Take every thought captive and make it obedient to Christ.

i offer the members of my body as instruments of righteousness. i put on Your armor, God: the helmet of salvation; the breastplate of righteousness; and the shield of faith. i fasten the belt of truth around me and take of the sword of the Spirit — Your Word; teach me how to wield it in Your power. And Father, give me the shoes of the Gospel that all of my steps would honor You.
